

2024 Mobile Intensive Care Nurse Course (MICN)

Dates: Tuesday & Wednesday, June 18 & 19
Tuesday & Wednesday, December 17 & 18

Location: Enloe Conference Center
0800-1600 – both days

Fee: Mandatory Enloe employee: No Fee
Non-Mandatory Enloe employee: $50
Non-Enloe Employee: $100

CEs: 12 BRN Contact Hours

Objectives: At the end of the program the participant will be able to:

- Review the State & Local Emergency Medical Services System
- Identify the roles of the various EMS personnel
- Describe the difference between Advanced Life Support vs Basic Life Support
- Describe the dangers faced by EMS personnel
- Identify the different roles in the base hospitals
- Demonstrate how to effectively communicate on the radios
- Review policies and protocols.

Pre-Requisite: One year experience working in the Emergency Dept or Manager's approval.

Questions may be directed to Kara Davis, RN Education Coordinator, Enloe Medical Center 530.332.6753

BRN: Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, CEP #000180, for the number of hours indicated.

