

ENLOE HEALTH IN COLLABORATION WITH EMST PRESENTS

EMT PROGRAM

Launch an exciting career in Emergency Medical Services while gaining valuable hands-on patient care experience. Whether your goal is EMT, paramedic, nursing, or medical school, this course provides a powerful foundation for your future. Experience more patient contact than any other EMS training program in Butte County.

COURSE OVERVIEW

172-Hour comprehensive EMT training program
Prepares students for National & State Certification
Train to be job-ready from day one
Identify, treat & transport patients with routine or life-threatening injuries
Clinical rotations in hospital AND EMS settings

FEES COVER

Tuition
Books
Uniform Shirt
BLS/CPR Course
Mandatory Background Check

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Internet access for online assignments & quizzes. Class and clinical uniforms required. Immunization documentation: negative TB test (within past year), Varicella (2 vaccines or titer), MMR, Tdap, and Influenza vaccine — required for clinical internship placement.

CLASS SCHEDULE

Location: ENloe Health Conference Center
Dates: 8/27 – 11/21
Days: Tuesday's and Thursday's 5 PM – 9 PM, and every other Saturday 8AM - 4PM

Instructor: Miller, Matt

COURSE FEE

Total Fee: $1,285.00
This fee covers tuition, books, uniform shirt, BLS/CPR certification course, and the mandatory background check. Secure your spot today — seats are limited!

CONTACT ENLOE HEALTH FOR ENROLLMENT INFORMATION:

📞 530-332-7588

✉️ Matt.Miller@enloe.org

🌐 Register online:
<https://www.cognitoforms.com/EnloeHealth1/EMTProgramRegistration>

